BRIEFLY NOTED

MINISTRY WITH THE AGING. ed. by William M. Clements. San Francisco: Harper & Row, Publishers, 1981. Cloth, 265 pp. $12.95. This is a collection of essays by psychologists, historians, theologians and educators about the process, problems and contributions of the aging, from a Christian perspective. Directed towards those whose relationship with the aged is in terms of ministry, the heart of the book is in its third section which focuses on the practical. It describes what has and can be done with the passion of those who speak from personal experience. J.Z-S.

WORSHIP IN ACTION. A PARISH MODEL OF CREATIVE LITURGY AND SOCIAL CONCERN. by John Maxwell. Mystic, Ct.: Twenty-Third Publications, 1981. paper. 139 pages. $4.95. The first four chapters tell us about a multi-cultural parish in the inner-city and how its liturgy committee began to set a direction to the liturgical life of the parish. The following chapters provide examples of their liturgies, offered as models not for imitation but as "starting points for reflection and use in your own liturgical setting." Even though this parish is Catholic, many of the ideas for worship are easily adaptable to other Christian traditions as are the chapters on death and dying and funeral liturgies. This is not a "recipe book" with an answer to every question but a book to inspire us into prayerful action. Excellent reading for members of the parish committee with responsibilities for planning worship. — Norman Simmons.
